COMMERCIAL FINANCE

When your business needs financing – whether for purchase or start-up, bridge, restructuring, or recapitalization – you need help.

CONSTRUCTION LAW

CREDITORS'S RIGHTS

It is inevitable in business that some customers will fail to make payment. When this happens, our attorneys are frequently called upon by creditors and commercial landlords to advise them on collection remedies.

The growing criminalization of business and private life has widened the reach of charges to include people who would not previously have encountered the court system as a criminal defendant.

EMPLOYMENT LAW

Our firm has extensive experience in representing employers and employees across the full range of employment issues.

ESTATE ADMINISTRATION

Our estate attorneys have prepared estate accountings for over 40 years and are familiar with the office procedures and documentation requirements of all of the commissioners of accounts in the 23rd Judicial Circuit and with many commissioners of accounts in the surrounding 10-county area.

ESTATE PLANNING

Protecting the wishes, interests, and rights of our clients is always of topmost concern, particularly when it comes to the planning of their estates.

LITIGATION

We represent clients in a variety of business and personal disputes.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT LAW

Our relationships with local governments have been strong since we first began representing governments and municipalities in 1970.

PERSONAL INJURY LAW

The victims of personal injury and their families have special needs. We recognize that, because we have represented victims of personal injury in cases ranging from major catastrophic injury to minor auto accidents.

REAL ESTATE / LAND USE / ZONING LAW

Our real estate attorneys have represented developers, landlords, tenants, buyers, sellers and governments in commercial real estate matters since the inception of our firm.
