

PHILLIP LINGAFELT

PRINCIPAL

GLENN
FELDMANN
GLENN FELDMANN DARBY & GOODLATTE

As a member of both the Virginia and North Carolina Bar Associations, Phillip represents clients in a diverse range of legal matters to ensure their interests and assets are guarded, protected, and preserved. An experienced bankruptcy attorney for creditors and an accomplished litigator, Phillip is exceptionally qualified to help corporate clients deal with debtors seeking to restructure debts, preserve assets, and recover outstanding judgment and payment obligations. His successful outcomes in the area of contractual and property disputes has earned him a strong reputation with regional corporate leaders and national corporations doing business in the Roanoke Valley. Phillip serves clients in the field of creditor's rights and civil litigation, authoring articles for publication. He is experienced in construction cases, personal injury cases, criminal cases, and estate administration.

T. 540.224.8028

F. 540.224.8050

E. plingafelt@glennfeldmann.com

EDUCATION

James Madison University, magna cum laude (1984)
Marshall-Wythe School of Law at the College of William and Mary (1988), Order of the Coif

EXPERIENCE

Glenn, Feldmann, Darby & Goodlatte (1990-present)
Law Clerk to the Honorable James C. Turk and the Honorable Glen E. Conrad, United States District Court for the Western District of Virginia

ASSOCIATIONS

Roanoke Bar Association
Virginia State Bar
North Carolina State Bar
Federal Bar Association, Roanoke Chapter

AUTHORSHIP

Hiring A Licensed Building Contractor
Collections Are a Vital Part of Any Business
Virginia's Motor Vehicle Warranty Enforcement Act
Reducing the Impact of Others' Bankruptcy Proceedings

CIVIC INVOLVEMENT

Graduate of the Roanoke Regional Chamber of Commerce Leadership Roanoke Valley
Program
Member of the Ted Dalton Inn of Court
Member of the Fourth Circuit Judicial Conference