

TAX LAW

We at Glenn Feldmann Darby & Goodlatte have helped many corporations, small companies, family-owned businesses, municipalities, and individuals deal with tax issues from the relatively simple to the highly complex.

Our corporate and business lawyers can provide sophisticated advice on the tax considerations inherent in various transactions. Our firm also has decades of experience in representing individuals and businesses before the Internal Revenue Service.

Ted Troland holds an L.L.M. in Tax from New York University and has written chapters on tax considerations in publications on corporate acquisitions and buy/sell agreements among shareholders.
